

Want to learn more about the Royal Commission into Violence, Abuse, Neglect and Exploitation of People with Disability?

Maurice Corcoran, former Principal Community Visitor for South Australia is now a Senior Policy Officer for the Royal Commission and we are fortunate to have him as our guest speaker at our upcoming event.

The presentation will be followed by the ASID General Meeting

Enjoy a light meal, glass of wine with like-minded people

Agenda:

- 6.00 pm Light meal and networking
- 6:40 pm Presentation by Maurice and a co worker
- 7:10 pm Questions and general discussion
- 7:20 pm ASID General meeting and election
- 7:45 pm Finish

All this for just $27 for members of ASID and DEAI and $37 for non-members

When: Wednesday 23rd October 2019

Time: 6pm

Where: South Australian Learning Centre, Minda Campus - please refer to map attached
12-16 King George Ave,
North Brighton

Cost $27 (GST inclusive) ASID & DEAI Members
$37 (GST inclusive) Non-Members

Includes a light meal and drink, tea, coffee and water

If you would like to attend, please click this link HERE

For further information, regarding the forum please email Denice Wharldall dwharldall@homeplace.com.au

South Australian Learning Centre, Minda Campus

The South Australian Learning centre is located on Minda's Brighton campus in the heritage listed Rogerson Building.

To find the Rogerson building, please enter the campus via the Southern Entrance off King George Ave and follow the signs to the South Australian learning Centre.

The South Australian Learning Centre offers free onsite parking, making it an easy destination for your training and conference needs. We are also situated close to a number of public transport options.

